25X1 4. [REDACTED] Called Bob Bedell, OGC/OMB, and gave 25X1 him the language of our proposed exemption from S. 3418, the Senate version of the right of privacy bill. He said he could see no problems with it and he would be discussing it with Jim Davidson, Senate Government Operations Subcommittee on Intergovernmental Relations staff, and hoped that Senator 25X1A Sam J. Ervin, Jr. (D., N. C.) would include our exemption among the list of exemptions he introduces when the bill is first brought up on the floor.
He will let me know sometime next week. (The language of the CIA exemption was coordinated with [REDACTED] OGC.)

25X1 5. [REDACTED] Accompanied Carl Duckett, DDS&T, to a meeting with Senator Walter F. Mondale (D., Minn.) and his Staff Assistant, David Aaron, a former NSC staffer who is accompanying the Senator on a trip to Moscow leaving tomorrow. Mr. Duckett brought the Senator up to date on the four Soviet missile systems under current development and their relation to the SALT agreement. I delivered to the Senator a set of 25X1 6. [REDACTED] Met with Mrs. Wilson, in the office of STATOTHR Representative Edward Madigan (R., Ill.), and discussed with her a constituent request for the Director's testimony on Chile. Mrs. Wilson indicated that Representative Madigan would appreciate our responding directly to [REDACTED]

25X1 25X1A 7. [REDACTED] At the request of [REDACTED] IC Staff, 25X1A picked up a number of sealed envelopes, one addressed to [REDACTED] and two addressed to [REDACTED] 25X1A and delivered them. to IC Staff.

25X1 8. [REDACTED] Met with Homer Lee Krout, Administrative 25X1A Assistant to Representative Joel T. Broyhill (R., Va.), and discussed with him the Agency's response to the Representative's letter concerning the employment turndown of [REDACTED] Krout had no problem with our response.

As an aside, he indicated that with the defeat of Mr. Broyhill, he will go out of government and may even settle away from the Washington area.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 6 November 1974

25X1 [redacted]
25X1 1. [redacted] Greg Rushford, Legislative Assistant to Representative Clarence D. Long (D., Md.), called dripping with sarcasm over the receipt of the article on the Persian Gulf I sent to 25X1A [redacted] him the other day and rambled through a number of implied threats (calling [redacted] that he would get the information from the Agency one way or another. When Rushford mentioned possibly going through Chairman Lucien N. Nedzi, Special Subcommittee on Intelligence, House Armed Services Committee, I encouraged such a constructive step. Despite Rushford's efforts to construe it otherwise, I made it clear that we were not refusing to brief Representative Long or committees having a jurisdictional interest, but the time of our analysts is limited by pressing requirements to satisfy the needs of our statutory requirements and those of Congressional committees as well and the counter proposals Rushford was advancing for access to all of our intelligence on this subject, simply was not feasible.

25X1 2. [redacted] In line with our earlier understanding, spoke to Bill Dixon, Counsel, House Judiciary Committee, concerning the wrapup of our review of possible information related to Governor Rockefeller of interest to the Judiciary Committee in connection with the confirmation procedures. It was agreed that we would shoot for a final session sometime early next week. We also generally discussed the procedures he proposed to follow in handling our information and said he would give us memoranda he has written up based upon our session as well as an opportunity to deal with Chairman Rodino directly in the event that these procedures cause any problems.

25X1 3. [redacted] Called Susie Owens, in the office of 25X1A Senator Russell B. Long (D., La.), in connection with the further claims of [redacted] 25X1A and told her we would be corresponding directly with [redacted] and that we would send, with appropriate sanitization, a copy of the [redacted] letter for their files, which she appreciated.
